

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

Director of Student (Youth) Ministries

First United Methodist Church Montgomery is seeking a Director of Student Ministries to lead and oversee all aspects of the Youth program for 6th to 12th grade students. The Director of Student Ministries must have a love for God, a love for youth, and a pastoral heart. Additionally, qualified candidates will be energetic, relational, and motivated. Most importantly, we are looking for someone who will guide our youth as they develop meaningful relationships with Christ.

Our ideal candidate has the following skills and qualities:

- Strong leadership and organizational skills
- Commitment to FUMC Montgomery and its vision, values, and beliefs
- Demonstrated commitment to Christian ministry
- Ability to relate to the unique needs of youth
- Willingness to engage and interact with parents as partners and volunteers
- Excellent communication with parents and students using current technology and social media platforms
- Plans innovative and interesting programming which appeals to a variety of student interests

Responsibilities for this position:

- Organize, promote, implement and lead FUMC's youth ministry programs, including Sunday School, Sunday night MYF, Bible studies, small groups, youth retreats, summer activities, service opportunities, mission trips, and other activities and events
- Coordinate, recruit and sustain parent and adult volunteer efforts
- Effectively communicate with youth, parents, and the FUMC community
- Build meaningful, personal relationships with youth to point them toward Christ
- Teach and preach to youth
- Support youth by regularly attending community and school events

Time commitment: Full-time

Education requirements: Bachelor's degree (with an emphasis in Christian education preferred)

References required.

Salary: Competitive based on experience and qualifications.
